1. Introduction

The next Conference of Presidents of Parliament will be held at the Council of Europe Headquarters in Strasbourg, France, on 15 and 16 September 2016.

The Conference is composed of Speakers and Presidents of the Parliaments of the 47 Member States of the Council of Europe; of parliaments enjoying observer and partner for democracy status with the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe (PACE) and of international parliamentary assemblies. The Parliaments of Central Asia and Maghreb are also associated.

The Conference will deal with three major topical issues:

- Migration and refugee crisis in Europe – role and responsibilities of parliaments
- National Parliaments and the Council of Europe: Together promoting democracy, human rights and the rule of law
- Mobilisation of Parliaments against hate for inclusive and non-racist societies

2. Message from the President of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe

"I look forward to welcoming in Strasbourg on 15 and 16 September 2016 the Presidents of Parliament of Council of Europe member states and the Presidents of many other parliaments and assemblies.

Europe is confronted with daunting challenges: terrorism; war and frozen conflicts; the inability to find a solution to the large-scale arrival of migrants and refugees; the rise of populism, nationalism, intolerance and euro-scepticism, as well as a polarised political climate fuelled also by the consequences of the economic crisis.

I sincerely hope that, in these difficult times, when Europeans must realise that peace, stability and security cannot be taken for granted, the European Conference of Presidents of Parliament will be an opportunity to remind ourselves of our common values, interests and ideals, to rise above selfishness and seek solutions together, for the benefit of European citizens."

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read 'Pedro Agramunt'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial 'P' and a long, sweeping tail.

Pedro Agramunt

President of the Parliamentary Assembly

List of speakers

Before the start of the Conference, Presidents can register in the list of speakers for different themes by sending an email to the Secretariat of the Conference: sap.speakersconference2016@coe.int.

During the Conference they can do so with the Table Office (Office 1.087, Lift VI – Tel +33 (0)388 41 3097).

The order of the speakers will be determined by the drawing of lots organised during the meeting of Secretaries of national delegations which will take place at 9 am on Thursday 15 September (room 5). The list thus established will be distributed as soon as possible to allow speakers to know when they will be called to address the Conference.

Speakers registering after the drawing of lots will be added to the list in the order in which they have registered.

Bilateral meetings

Four meeting rooms are at the disposal of participants for the purpose of bilateral talks: rooms 16 and 17, ground floor (near the cafeteria), room Berlin, 1st floor (near the Parliamentarians' Bar), and room 5161, 5th floor.

To book one of these meeting rooms, for bilateral talks, please contact:

- before the Conference: sap.speakersconference2016@coe.int
- during the Conference: the Table Office - Office 1.087, Lift VI (Tel +33 (0)388 41 3097).

7. Working languages

Conference documents will be available in English and French. Simultaneous interpretation will be provided into and from English, French, German, Italian, Russian and Turkish.

An interpretation booth will be placed at the disposal of those delegations who require the interpretation of the speech of their President. For any request, please contact the Conference Secretariat.

Additional booths have been allocated in chronological order of requests made, for simultaneous interpretation in other languages.

| Interpretation Channels (Chamber) | | | |
|--|-------------------|-------------------|-------------------|
| Channel 0 : original language of the speaker | | | |
| Channel 1 | Channel 2 | Channel 3 | Channel 4 |
| German | English | French | Italian |
| Channel 5 | Channel 6 | Channel 7 | Channel 8 |
| Russian | Spanish | Turkish | Greek |
| Channel 9 | Channel 10 | Channel 11 | Channel 12 |
| Polish | Hungarian | Bulgarian | Czech |

NB: hearing-impaired persons are kindly requested to contact the Secretariat in order to be provided with special earphones.

IMPORTANT : In order to facilitate the work of the interpreters, speakers are invited to provide in advance a copy of any written speeches to the Table Office - sap.speakersconference2016@coe.int - Office 1087 (Lift VI – Tel +33 (0)388 41 3097).

Why give a copy of your prepared speech to the interpreters?

The interpreter conveys an oral message orally in another language. In order to do so, he or she has to receive, decode, reformat and deliver that message simultaneously. This may seem easy in the case of an impromptu speech which develops gradually as the speaker's ideas take shape; but it becomes a sometimes impossible feat when the speech is read out.

Why? Because a speech that is read out has first of all been written down.

A written text is prepared, reworked and improved, often over several successive versions. It will nearly always be more structured, and invariably more compact, than an impromptu speech.

That compactness – information density – is the main difficulty in simultaneous interpreting.

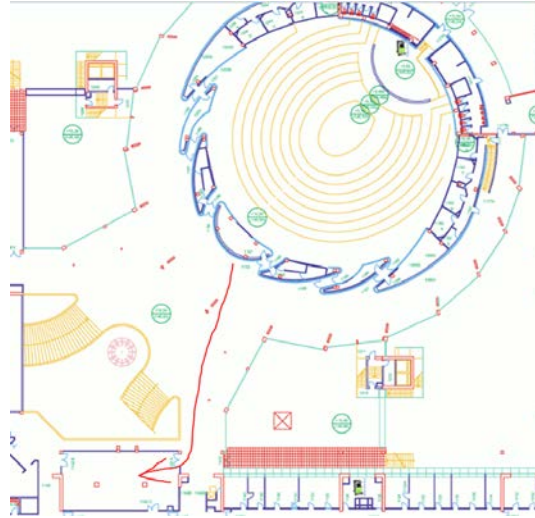

There is only one way in which the interpreter can get round the problem : it is to prepare, polish and improve his/her interpretation of the text that is to be read out. Consequently, it is vital for him or her to have a look at it beforehand. If you deny your interpreter an advance look at a text you have prepared, then, much of the effort that has gone into its preparation is wasted.

If interpreters ask to have advance copies of speeches that are to be read out, it is not so much to make their own job easier as to provide a better service.

8. Documentation

Documents of the Conference as well as speeches (once delivered) will be made available to participants at the documentation desk (1st floor in front of the Chamber entrance – Lift IV).

Other documents and reports on the different sectors of work of the Council of Europe will also be available at the documentation desk.

9. Social events

Participation in social events is strictly reserved for persons invited. Guests are kindly requested to bring their invitation with them and wear their Conference identity badges.

On Thursday 15th September 2016, following the reception of the city of Strasbourg, shuttle busses to the city centre (two stops at “Gare centrale” and “Hotel Novotel Halles”) will leave at 9pm and 9.30pm from the Pavillon Joséphine.

10. Information technology

The Council of Europe Wifi service allows external users, who are on the Council’s premises, to obtain a wireless connection to the Internet free of charge.

The Wifi ID is COE guest.

11. Press service

The Communication Division is organising a technical briefing for interested communication staff and journalists on Thursday 15 September at 10 am at the mediabox (in front of the hemicycle, 1st floor).

Press facilities (fully-equipped press room in Room 4, 2nd floor), TV and radio studios (ground floor) will be available throughout the conference. A press conference room (Room 1, 2nd floor) is available from 15 September 2 pm until 16 September 2 pm. Video and audio footage as well as photographs can be provided upon request. The mediabox will also be available for recording statements and/or interviews, with a link provided for use on websites and via social media.

Journalists, including those who are accompanying the delegations, are invited to request accreditation from the Communication Directorate via the online form, at the following link: http://www.coe.int/t/dc/general/press-form/press-accreditation_en.asp.

Information concerning the conference can be found on a dedicated page on the Assembly's website, assembly.coe.int, including a link to the live webcast of the conference. National parliaments and international assemblies are kindly invited to add this link to their own web pages.

For further press requests, the PACE Communication Division can be contacted on: pace.com@coe.int.
